RICH WEIRDOES PERFORM HALLOWEEN CLASSIC: ROCKY HORROR

Orlando, FL – On October 26th and 27th at Midnight, and October 31st at 10:00 PM, The Rich Weirdoes will present special Halloween performances of the interactive cult movie-musical, The Rocky Horror Picture Show, at AMC Loews Universal Cineplex 20 at Universal CityWalk. The movie screening will be accompanied by live opening acts, a costume contest, an interactive cast of performers, and – of course – audience participation!

The Rich Weirdoes are Orlando's premiere all-volunteer, not-for-profit shadow cast. A shadow cast is a theater troupe that specializes in a form of pantomime and lip-synch to a pre-recorded piece of film or music. They perform regular screenings of The Rocky Horror Picture Show all year long on every 2nd and 4th Friday and Saturday of the month at Midnight. They also have done special performances of other films including Moulin Rouge!, Little Shop of Horrors, and Clue.

According to its original press release, The Rocky Horror Picture Show is:

“An outrageous assemblage of the most stereo-typed science fiction movies, Marvel comics, Frankie Avalon/Annette Funicello outings and rock 'n' roll of every vintage. Running through the story is the sexual confusion of two middle American Ike Age kids confronted by the complications of the decadent morality of the 70's, represented in the person of the mad 'doctor' Frank N Furter, a transvestite from the planet Transsexual in the galaxy of Transylvania.”
